

Strolling through History

A San Bernardino County Museum Association Field Trip

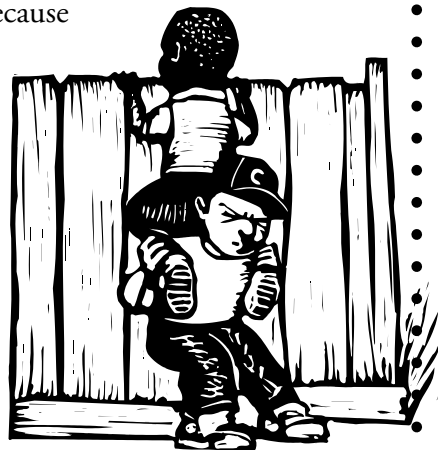

with Curator of History Michele Nielsen

Friday, June 22, 2007 • 3:00 to 5:00 p.m.

Call it Strolling through History or Strollers and Stories or even Toddlers and Tales in Historic Redlands — this unusual Friday afternoon day trip is designed especially for the young family (yes, it's after naptime!). Tuck your wee ones into their strollers and double-knot your toddlers' tennies, because we're going to explore historic Redlands knee-high to a grass-hopper! We'll even include a very special story session with readers and books from the Frugal Frigate bookstore, located in a historic pony stable.

History is for all ages! Take a stroll with us and start your children on the road to exciting lifelong curiosity with stories from history and a chance to practice how to look closely and ask a lot of questions.

Children must be accompanied by one or more parents or guardians!

We'll meet in the seats at the Redlands Bowl (in Smiley Park between Eureka and Grant Streets, across the street from the library and the Lincoln Shrine) and roll around downtown. The cost is just $10 per family ($15 per non-Museum Association member family). Bring your own portable snacks, beverages, and wipes.

Space is limited, and pre-paid reservations are required.
